

"When I see people come to life and start singing along, dancing and having a good time, I know I am doing the right thing by adding some joy to their day through music." Susan Elaine

Have you ever heard a familiar song and suddenly you were reliving old fond memories and happy times? Has a song ever taken you back to the sights, sounds, smell and even tastes of some very special moment in your life, so vivid that you can relive that moment in time today? This is the experience Susan brings to her shows.

Susan has a Background in Community Theater including leading roles in "A Man with a Plastic Sandwich" and "The Octet Bridge Club". A little over six years ago after realizing the desire for the "Big Band" sound and the come back of Ballroom Dancing, she began Singing for audiences throughout Southern California. She enjoys participating in theme parties and can perform in costume for your special occasion. She can also write a song parody for the Guest of Honor at your event.

She encourages audience participation, dancing, sing-a-longs and mingles with the crowd to enhance the mood.
